REFERENCE SERVICE

[S. Internal Security Comm.]

Quito, Ecuador, October 16, 1959

To the Chairman of the "North American Anti-Communist Congress" [SEC]
Washington, USA

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I have the honor to address you in my capacity of ex-Major in Fidel Castro's Rebel Army. I, Major Iglesias, fought for two years and seven months for Cuba's freedom, for which action on my part I am not sorry, since every life has its share of treachery and disillusionment, but men with ideals [men of good will] think things over [come to their senses] in time; and I took a look at the murderer, Fidel Castro, and his gang and [realized] that due to him the Soviet label might be pinned on the men who were fighting side by side for a happy and free Cuba. Not agreeing with the system of terror nor with his personal ambitions, and imagining him as the conqueror of the Americas by order of the Soviets, the only thing that I would ask of you and the world is that you understand the feelings of a Cuban who has neither delusions of grandeur nor [personal] ambitions, but is seeking the happiness of his people. Therefore I beg you to be so kind as to admit me as a potential witness, with irrefutable evidence of the communism which reigns in Cuba.

Any reference deemed necessary by you with respect to my person may be obtained from Cuban Air Force Major Pedro Dias Lana.

I have in my possession documentary evidence of the communism of Fidel Castro and his brother Raul, of the latter's wife, as well as other key officers in the government.

I am sending you a snapshot of myself which was taken when I was a member of the Rebel Army.
